Nicolas Moreton will once again be holding his successful three-day carving course at Cowslip Meadows. Suitable for the complete beginner or those who want to brush up their skills, the three-day intensive workshop will guide you through planning, carving and finishing your own stone sculpture.

If possible come with a shape idea - please feel free to send your idea's through to Nicolas before arriving so that he can advise whether your idea is feasible.

The course is set up for you to learn new skills in a fun sociable environment. The workshop includes use of tools, goggles and masks. Drawing materials are provided and you are advised to wear sensible work clothes and footwear.

This is an super opportunity to gain knowledge from a celebrated practicing sculptor. The small group allows for more individual attention, it is advisable to book in early.

Nicolas Moreton

Nicolas has been working in stone for over 35 years. He is a member of the Royal Society of Sculptors his work is collected worldwide. This year he will be showing with Messums Fine Art, at RHS Chelsea and has been invited to show at Carden Park Sculpture Garden in Cheshire.
